CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Fifty-year member, Mr Jack Chown, OBE, was recently made a life member of the Club in recognition of his great record of service and support. Jack has been a consistent donor to our various clubs in a financial and in a practical way by giving advice to the sub-committees and participants. He is a highly-respected businessman in this city and his charitable work is second to none. His contribution to the games of billiards, snooker and golf are legendary and through his active participation and influence he had done an enormous amount within the Club and outside to promote these sports to the high level they enjoy today.

Our contribution to the Australian Olympic Games Appeal for our 1984 team to go to Los Angeles was officially handed over at the Channel 10 Telethon on Saturday, February 4. The final amount raised by Tattersall's was $12,114. I thank all members who supported the appeal for their generosity and enthusiasm.

We have previously advised you of the formation of a Businessmen's Club. The sub-committee has been very active, arranging a meeting for Tuesday, March 20 next, to inform members of the objects of the Club and to meet interested members. John Collins is the secretary (phone 264 1964) if you require further information. We look forward to seeing you there.

The sad news of the sudden death in Fiji of prominent member Rich Hertz was a shock to all members who knew him. Rich was responsible for arranging our sponsors for our race meetings. He was very well known in the advertising industry operating his own business for many years. Our deepest sympathy go to his family.

For those members interested in attending the Wellington Boot race meeting, it is on Monday, March 26 next. The Club is not arranging a flight this year, but for those wishing to make the trip I can personally assure you of a great day, or weekend! If you are making the trip please leave your name (and the names of your guests) with Margaret Bell in the office so that I can arrange tickets for the races and for the luncheon provided by the committee of the Wellington Race Club. For those attending, there is a full weekend of sport and entertainment activities. I will also let you have details of these. The visit to Macquarie Stud to inspect their yearlings for the Easter Sale at Newmarket and the parade of stallions and some of their top mares is always a most enjoyable outing. The stud is right in Wellington, only about two miles from the racecourse, and Tattersall's member David Baxter and his wife Robin provide a delicious morning tea at 10.30 am on the 26th, Monday morning.

It is with the greatest of regret that I have to inform members that I have made the decision not to stand for a further term as chairman. I have some time ago informed the committee of this and will step down from the position on Friday, March 16 when I will have completed five years as the Club's chairman. During that time I have enjoyed the work and the association with my fellow members. I now find that pressure of my outside work has increased significantly and that I will be unable to devote the greater amount of time the position will require to properly carry out the duties over the coming few years.

In conclusion, I would like to take this opportunity to thank members, executive and staff for their support and loyalty during the past five years. In particular I extend my sincere appreciation to the two men with whom I worked closely, David Dransfield, treasurer, who has steered the Club to a sound financial position and our capable secretary, Norman Smith, who has built a reputation as a sound Club administrator.

Tattersall's Club has always had the reputation of having the most courteous, pleasant, efficient and friendly staff of any club. Today that reputation is as high as ever — I thank everyone of you.

With every best wish for the future to all members and staff.

THE GAME OF CRICKET

One-day cricket has reached record proportions. Attendance figures are records — 86,133 in Melbourne — an all-time best.

It has returned great moneys to players, associations and promoters. I am a cricket purist and frankly don't like today's slap-bash, slide, technicolor production of the great game of cricket.

I would like to see this new product called "sliding rounders" or "bash the ball" or a name befitting the one-day game as presented.

It's a farce to see class batsmen wielding the bat like a baseball club and finishing up with their backsides closer to the square-leg umpire, looking very ungainly, as their wicket is spreadeagled. The theatrical baseball slide to gather the ball was never used by good fieldsmen like Harvey and Morris — they didn't have to fall over to stop the ball cleanly. Today unless a fieldsmen has "grass on his pants" he hasn't been fielding well.

I love the game of cricket. Some of my best friends were great Test, Shield and club cricketers and share my feelings.

My sincere hope is that some of the thousands who have never attended cricket before will find enough interest and come to the real cricket as well.

I believe if this doesn't happen they won't have players to go and see in any game of cricket played.

MAX BYGRAVES BACK

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

"would you play the music from Star Wars please?"

Busy executive member Alan Hickey paused to spend an evening at Tattersall's. It was a school year-end party for Simon Hickey (son) after nine years at St Aloysius College. It was also the birthday of Alan's wife Amanda. Party included grandparents Anne and John Hickey, Marjorie Hellmrich, Michael and Jane Hickey (son and daughter). It was a very enjoyable evening.

It was a very happy party for the Roberts. Os and Thel staged a party to celebrate birthdays for grandchildren Peter and Vicki and their friends Matthew and Janine. Of course it's a wonderful way to have a very pleasant evening in the dining area of the Club. The children just love the attention of the staff.

Dr Robert and wife Lurline Mackey entertained John Bast from Holland. He is a recognised world authority on cheese and its marketing. The Mackey's met John whilst visiting Europe and the party was in some way the reciprocation for hospitality he gave them on their visits to his country.

Very pleasant and personable member Warren Ball and his wife Gail entertained a party to celebrate the birthday of Ann Camensoli. All present enjoyed the evening immensely, dined and danced until very late. Present were Ann and Jim Camensoli of St Ives, Paul and Evelyn Aquilana, the managing director of National Food Services. He congratulated the chef on a superb meal, Graham and Joy Hall of Graham Hall Computer Equipment, Bruce and Dawn Millgate of Golf Tours Incorporated with Vin Cleary and wife Elaine. Vin is a master plumber. All of the guests are keen racing enthusiasts. They were very impressed with the service and civility of the Club. This thought was passed on to Andy.

Ian and Craig Mitchell with Herbert Lewin enjoyed an excellent Christmas evening party at Tattersall's. Ian and Craig are busy young executives so it was pleasant to relax in the Club. Both stated how impressed they were with the fine service in the dining area. Herbert Lewin and wife Enid were pleased to arrange this happy party.

At Christmas three generations of the Murray family were in a party at Tattersall's. Grandfather Tom Murray, Pat Murray and wife Margaret and Margo with her husband Michael Smith. The Murrays are well known in the racing circles and great supporters of Tattersall's Club. May 1984 be a very happy racing year for Pat and Margaret.

Frank O'Loan headed the table of an 18-member group at Tattersall's. John Allen arranged the celebration. It was pleasing to see Frank back at Tattersall's after a long illness. John's wife Rosemary was so pleased to see the gathering really enjoying the party evening.

Well-respected member David Samer thought it would be nice to have a cocktail party evening for Action Investigation Services. David reported it was an excellent evening enjoyed by all. Special guests included Mr J.A. Gill, chief solicitor for GIO and other insurance company executives, members Lew Silk and Ron Applebaum were in the party, too.

Lee and Margaret Dunn arranged a celebration for the 12th birthday of their daughter Jacha. Guests were Mr and Mrs Chris Hanlon and their daughter Nicola. Jacha was all smiles as Tattersall's attentive dining staff attended to party details.

Club member Gordon Bruckner and wife Judy entertained Udo Bruckner and wife Marion when they celebrated 25 years of being in Australia. What better place than our own Club. May the next 25 years be filled with happiness, too.

Member Lou Pidcock thought it would be a good idea to celebrate the occasion and farewell for son Christopher (who has just finished engineering at Sydney University), it was attended by the Pidcock family: Lou (father), Christopher, Caroline, Louise, Maryanne, Lucy and Kate. This delightful get-together was enjoyed by all the Pidcocks. May Christopher enjoy success in his achievement.

Doug and Marjorie Grosvenor hosted a dinner party to celebrate son Richard's visit to Sydney from Gladstone, Queensland, for the festive season. Guests included Richard's fiancée Elizabeth Diery and brother David.

Max and Phyl Girdler arranged a Tattersall's Club cocktail party with Elaine and Frank Lamb, which was followed by a beautiful dinner afterwards. Old friend David Dunn joined in the happy evening.

Congratulations to Jim Bell elected as chairman of the Australian Jockey Club. Jim succeeds the retiring Sir James Carr. It is an ideal choice. A fine sportsman, ex-digger and very well respected throughout the country and city. He was a top polo player, too. I'm sure Jim will do a fine and very competent job in this demanding appointment. — Ed.

Doctor, dentist and Club member Don Hutchison is a great sportsman. He was a top-grade cricketer. He's a keen racing man and you'll always see him wearing a smile and greeting his many friends.

He always looks bright and busy. Tattersall's Club member Ralph Lucas is president of the Urban Development Institute of Australia.

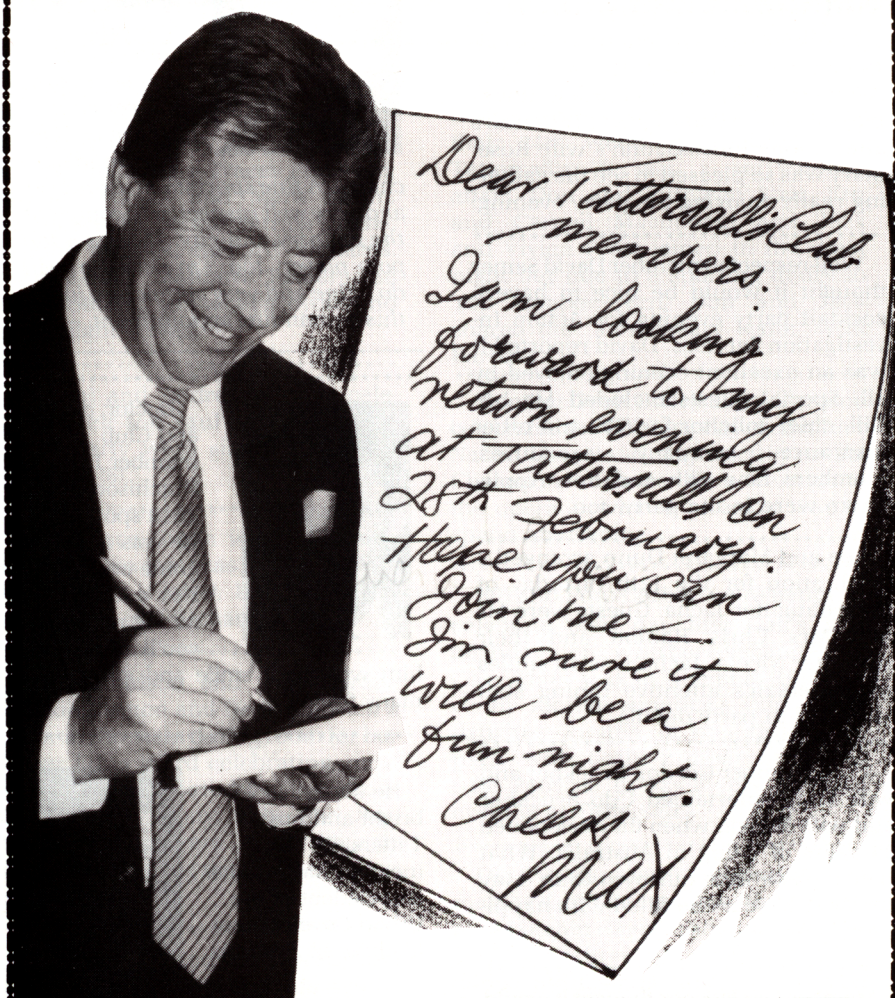

Homer and Madge Jones celebrated their grandson Andrew's 16th birthday at the Club on Saturday, December 3, together with his mother, Carole and his sister, Robyn and also another grandson John Forsyth. It was also a bon-voyage party for Carole, Andrew and Robyn who are off to Honolulu on the Monday for a holiday.

Bill and Wendy Evans celebrated new year with friends Mr and Mrs Ross Annisimoff, Mr and Mrs Roy Mayer. Tattersall's is a fine place to enjoy the festive evening.

John Vale arranged a party celebrating the birthday of Mrs Fay Vale. The members enjoying the evening included son Gerard and daughter Rosemary with Elizabeth Sertori.

CLUB PERSONALITIES AND SPORTSMEN SERIES

CRICKETER:

Keith Ross
"Nugget"
Miller

"He's the most exciting cricketer to ever don flannels!" This statement was made to me in the Members' Stand at the Sydney Cricket Ground.

Of course he was referring to "Nugget" Miller (as he is known to many of his sporting mates).

This dynamic all-rounder scored 14,183 runs averaging 48.90 — bowling: 497 wickets at 22.30 runs.

In Tests (55) 2,958 runs at 36.97 average — 170 wickets at 22.97 average. A really remarkable feat.

"Nugget" was an outstanding cricketing personality; aggressive and relaxed. He could "swing a game" in a moment. A brilliant catch — a surprise switch in bowling, his mane of hair swinging back and he'd flash in and produce a ball to get through the guard of any batsman.

Keith was "born" beside the race-track at Flemington, he smilingly told me. "I know more about horses than cricket!" If only it was true — he'd be a multi-millionaire.

Today he is associated with millionaire Robert Sangster in the Pools operation. His services have always been in demand as a writer, commentator and in public relations. Keith is so able in any calling.

A memorable cricket moment was when he starred in a dynamic victory Test at the end of the war. Crowds saw him blaze 185 in 165 minutes.

Keith lives in Newport, NSW with wife Peggy — they have four sons — unfortunately for Australia these fine men have not raised any hopes on the cricket field unlike their talented dad.

He is seen regularly in Tattersall's Club. When Miller enters heads turn round — to catch his spontaneous winning smile.

"Nugget" is one of the greatest personalities I have ever met — I'm so pleased he is a member of Tattersall's Club. — Os Bates.

It is intended to publish in each issue the history of outstanding sportsmen of Tattersall's Club.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER

— Doug Jordan

I would like to thank all members who sent letters, cards and messages during my period of hospitalisation in Townsville. I am slowly recovering from the fractures I incurred in a car accident. Hopefully I will be a contestant in our 1984 snooker and billiards tournament.

My belated congratulations to Mike Fitzgerald and Lee Bluett for being winner and runner-up in the 1983 snooker tournament.

Your snooker and billiards sub-committee in this never-ending desire to vary each year's format for prize distribution have decided to increase first and second prize-money for the 1984 ballot.

As the adjoining advertisement illustrates approximately $25,000 will be distributed. First owner receiving 50 per cent of nett, second owner 20 per cent; the remaining 30 per cent will be divided equally among the remaining 14 players to reach the last 16.

As in previous years, the Tom Powell Trophy for the winner will be on display in our second floor showcase.

The George Mousally Cup is also on display. For this trophy the winner of either the billiards or snooker handicap will have one leg in. The first contestant to win a second tournament in the same or any other year becomes the owner of the cup. The following players already have one leg in:

M. Fitzgerald

G. Woollard

K. McDonald

T. Farrar

George has also kindly donated two other trophies; one each for the winner of the snooker and billiards handicaps. These will also be on display.

Be sure to note in your diary: ENTRIES CLOSE MAY 4 AND COCKTAILS, AUCTION AND SMORGASBORD ON MAY 28 AT 6 PM.

KINDRED CLUB WELCOMED AT TATTERSALL'S CLUB

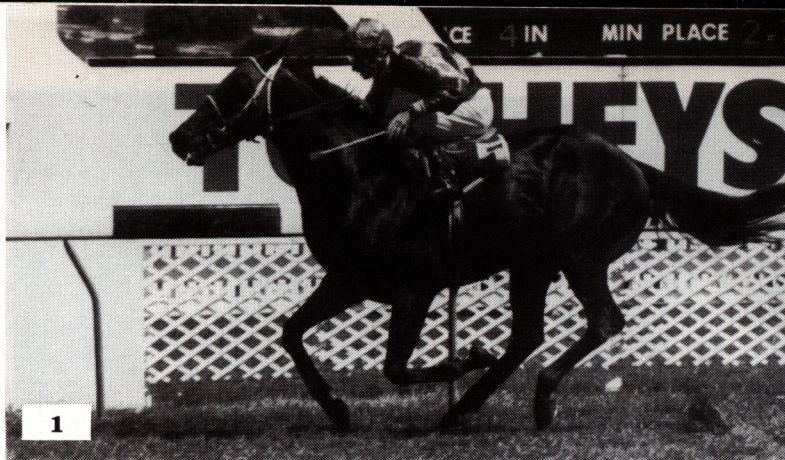

Tattersall's Club Room was the venue for the meeting of the Kindred Club. It was one of the most happy gatherings of Club administrators. Invited prominent citizens, legal and political members attended, too. An excellent smorgasbord was presented by chef Hubert — it was judged as outstanding in every way. Fine food tastefully presented. "It's an excellent opportunity for Club officials to exchange their views and ideas," said chairman Keith Moremon in his welcome to guests.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB RANDWICK RACE SCENE

Tattersall's Club 1984 New Year's Race Meeting was a tribute to the club racing committee: Tony McSweeney, Norman Rogers, Bruce McHugh, Peter Twigg and administrators. A great amount of work and application by this group made sure fields were the best available. Unsettled conditions up until race morning of January 2 made inroads on attendance. The sun shone about midday and brightened the day. Tattersall's members were made members of the AJC for the day and were able to enjoy the best of conditions.

Chairman Keith Moremon was flanked by his committee at the main table of the pre-race luncheon for Club members. 1984 guest-of-honour was Sir Clyde Kennedy, receiving this recognition for his contribution to racing, not only as chairman of the Sydney Turf Club but his whole career involvement.

Racing was of high order; Uno Patera won the Tattersall's Cup beating So Good and Claim the Quest. The Carrington Stakes was a thrilling race with success going to Young Blood from Flash Doll and Berlainsky.

Trophies for the day were supplied by member Brian O'Connor. Brian is very generous and co-operative to Tattersall's Club in producing the prizes for the day. We record special thanks.

Chairman's wife, Jill Moremon, was host of a ladies' luncheon including committeemen's wives with their guest. It was a colourful and beautiful scene. (I rate the dressing at this race meeting luncheon as most delightful. — Ed.).

Tattersall's members are invited to attend these meetings. Free tickets are provided — it's a day all may enjoy — our next meeting is in the Spring.

LADIES' LUNCHEON

HANDBALL

— Peter Ashby

NEIL ROGERS' TATTERSALL'S PLATE WIN

The Tattersall's Plate final between Neil Rogers and Frank Caldwell provided all the fireworks and drama expected of the clash of these handball greats — initially.

Both players had to produce top-quality handball skills to earn their place in the twelfth final of this singles championship event.

Norman Rogers, Tattersall's handball president and Tattersall's Club committeeman introduced this event to the handball circuit and has since totally sponsored it. Each handball club in the State is invited to nominate their best two singles players and the subsequent seeded draw produces the virtual State singles champion.

Frank Caldwell had accounted for Noel Vella, the favourite for the title on the strength of his previous three wins and Neil had eliminated Tony Brown and Don Hudson both of the Bondi Iceberg Club in earlier rounds.

From the first point it was evident that the game was not one for the faint-hearted and that it would be a long, drawn-out affair.

Neil served first and play went point for point with many long rallies before a decision. With the score 12-8 in Neil's favour it appeared that he had established the beginning of a winning break but he still only led by three points at 19-16.

Frank's service at this juncture let him down badly and Neil was able to increase his advantage to six points leading 23-17.

From this point Neil put up the shutters to ensure his first victory in this prestigious event and on his fine effort in the 1983 event it could well be the fore-runner to many such titles.

THE ROGERS BROTHERS DO IT AGAIN

Ron and Neil Rogers won the final of the 1983 NSW Handball Doubles Championship giving them their fourth title as a team in this event.

Neil won the title in 1981 partnered by Alex Hillston.

Ron and Neil were favourites and played as such in the early rounds and the toughest opposition they encountered was in the semi-final when they defeated the Bondi pair, Frank Caldwell and Don Hudson, 31-20.

Finalists and previous winners of the title Ray Hopkins of Tattersall's Club and Gary Stubbs of Clovelly had defeated Tony Baine and Charles Robinson of Tattersall's Club 31-26 in their semi.

Gary Stubbs has a great record in this event sponsored by Michael O'Dea since 1973 when it was played on the courts at the North Sydney Olympic Swimming Pool.

Hopkins and Stubbs won the serve and the first point but that was to be the only time they enjoyed the lead.

The Rogers team's defence was impregnable and their opponents' subsequent overhitting only accentuated the eventual winners' grip on the game.

While Hopkins and Stubbs combined to produce some exciting and entertaining handball they trailed Neil and Ron Rogers to the finish. Ron and Neil won 31-20.

HANDBALL PRESENTATION NIGHT

The big event at the handball presentation night was the unveiling of the Tattersall's Plate honour roll by Norman Rogers. This magnificent record of the most prestigious singles handball event graces the wall of the Sportsman's Room.

Neil Rogers, winner of the 1983 Tattersall's Plate received the trophy, donated by Norman Rogers, from Tattersall's committeeman, Neville Amy.

The NSW Doubles Championship Shield was donated and presented by Michael O'Dea to winners Ron and Neil Rogers and runners-up Ray Hopkins and Gary Stubbs.

The Silver Sharp Trophy donated by Tony McSweeney for the B. Grade Championship was presented by Stan Heaton to winner John Byrne and runner-up Bruce Upcroft.

The John Barnes Play-As-You-Come Handicap Doubles Competition saw trophies donated and presented by John Barnes to winners Les Hams and Bruce Upcroft. The runners-up John Barnes and Charles Robinson did not receive any memento to reward their efforts, tireless and gallant as they were in defeat. Charles will no doubt console himself with the reflection that historic events are often repeated. This competition did win the award for the longest-titled event.

The ever-improving Doug Salier won Sam Block's trophy for the most improved player. Sam Block made the presentation.

The handball committee's thanks are extended to Bruce McHugh, Bill Hannan, John Barnes, Norman Rogers, Tony McSweeney, Michael O'Dea and Sam Block for their continued support.

JACK CHOWN, OBE Life Member of Tattersall's Club

Jack joins a select group of members to be honoured by Tattersall's Club. No one persons is more deserving of this award. A benefactor to sport, a keen, genial type of a man. A fine supporter of the Club.

Congratulations Jack. — Ed.

OVER 300 AT CHRISTMAS PARTY

THE CHAIRMAN'S COCKTAIL PARTY set a record in members' attendance. Lady guests and members' wives were beautifully gowned for the festive occasion. It was a happy evening. Many lucky people won prizes: big pandas, padded smiling dogs and huge Christmas stockings to delight their families.

1. Young ladies enjoyed the festive evening where they could win wonderful prizes.
2. Mark and Josi Patten and a giant panda prize.
3. Marcus Kringas, Elizabeth Moremon, Mrs Walsh, Frank Roberts, Sue Moremon and Ray Walsh enjoying pre-celebration drinks.
4. (Left to right): Steward Martin serves cocktails to the party of Joanna and Peter Schell with Brian and Zara Boland.
5. Racing identity Bob Charley and his attractive wife Nina, sporting a prize won during the evening.

POOL SPLASHES

— Sam Block

The smorgasbord held in the Club Room for the presentation of last season's trophies was a most successful evening, although some trophy winners were unable to attend. It is such a good wind-up to the previous season and opening to the new season that only pressing emergencies should be allowed to keep you away. There is ample space in the splendid Club Room for the entire swimming section and their ladies.

Congratulations to last season's winners. All the details were in the previous Club magazine.

The current season got off to a good start in September with 40-yard individual events for the first couple of weeks to give the handicapper a chance to assess the form. He has all our times pretty well summed up at the moment and close finishes have been the order of the day, every day. The judges and time-keepers have to make many hard decisions but their honesty is beyond question (their eye-sight mightn't be).

The four-lap (80 yard) handicaps held on Thursdays have become very popular since they were introduced a couple of years ago. They attract almost as many starters as the shorter Tuesday events.

The Inaugural Meeting of THE BUSINESSMEN'S CLUB will be held at TATTERSALL'S CLUB 6 pm — March 20 ALL MEMBERS WELCOME.

Inevitably some names appear among the winners more often than others. The Glovers, the McCormacks and John Stubbs have been in good form this season with many wins between them. Others to greet the judges more than once have been John Nicholas, Chris Gunson, Andrew Barrell, Russell Debney, Robert Amy, Mike O'Dea, John Forsyth, John McCosker, John Murray, Martin McRobert and Tony King.

Congratulations to the winners of the two-monthly point scores completed to date — John Nicholas and Andrew Barrell.

Congratulations to Adrian Abbott on the winning performance of "I Like Roses" at Warwick Farm.

Welcome home to Sir Talbot Duckmanton — nice to have you with us again.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB

SKI CLUB

Our skiers in 1984 will have an added incentive to join our outings at Thredbo and Perisher. The committee of Tattersall's Club have accepted a proposal to introduce a "Sportsman of the Year" award. This award, to be competed for from among Tattersall's sporting clubs, will be judged by the committee from each sporting club's own nomination of its best sportsman. The Ski Club committee has yet to meet to decide final details of how we will choose our representative. It seems logical that the NASTAR system which operates at Thredbo and Perisher will form the basis of our selection criteria. For skiers unaware of NASTAR, it allocates each skier a handicap based on age and electrically times a slalom run over a measured course. It costs about $2.00 to enter and there is no limit to the number of times a skier may enter. The result is similar to net score in golf.

The Ski Club welcomes the introduction of the "Sportsman of the Year" award as an excellent means of generating competition between the sporting groups within the Club. We understand the Epicureans were keen to enter but selection criteria proved an insurmountable obstacle.

The Thredbo and Perisher weeks will again be a feature of the 1984 activities. Exact dates have yet to be approved by the Roslyn and Werruna committees. We have requested June 30 to July 7 and July 14 to 21. Ski Club members will be notified by newsletter during February of the details and bookings will open from March 1. In regard to Roslyn, Tattersall's Ski Club members and their immediate families receive priority until May 1 when bookings for friends of members may be accepted. With the last two seasons being less than good skiing years, there is every chance that 1984 will return to favourable conditions.

Tattersall's ski members are being seen on slopes around the world during the Australian "off season". Committee members Anthony Berkman, Bas Phillips and Graham Smith, together with Bruce Cormac and Brisbane visitors John Porter and Robert Wensley, are skiing Aspen and Vail. George Andrews has just returned from Davos Vurs and Verbier while Ski Club president Peter Evans and his wife Shirley have been seen on the slopes at Cortina in Italy on their way to the Winter Olympics at Sarajevo, Yugoslavia.

Any Tattersall's member wishing to join our band of happy skiers is made most welcome at any of the outings or functions throughout the year.

Four very old friends dined at Tattersall's. Nina and Clive Spinks with Jean and Eric Adnam. It was Nina's birthday. They joked about Clive breaking Eric's father's long-serving record in the rag trade. He worked for Paterson Laing and Bruce for 66 years. Clive notched up 67 years with Gowings. In the slogan of "sure to get it at Gowings" there's a thought of "you're sure to get the best at Tattersall's". Congratulations, Clive.

Pat and Margaret Needham arranged a party to say farewell to Noel Gibson who is retiring from Caltex after 38 years' of service. In the happy party were: Noel and Bea Gibson, Tom and Clare Mayers and Theo and Jo Meyer. We wish Noel a very happy and healthy retirement.

James and Teen Borthwick were happy to celebrate the birthday of son Charlie 6, also in the party were elder son Jamie 9, daughter Sophie 7 and Charlie's friend Robert Chambers 6. What a lovely place to have a party! The youngsters enjoyed the attention and service of the dining area staff. Andy and his attentive supporters give their very best to make sure it's an evening to remember for all.

Genial member Jack Levy is a very qualified fur trader. The fur trade gathered for their Christmas party for the Fur Trade Association. In the group we noticed Ernie Bacon, Stephen Gray, Revok Chaldjian and Phillip Moses. Christmas time in Australia is not fur time but there was a wealth of warm friendship in the group.

Tony and Eleanor McDonald with Peter and Margaret McGovern have attended Tattersall's parties for the past 20 years on New Year's Eve. "It has always been very enjoyable" is their verdict. Andy, the maitre de, regards them as regulars. Bob and Margaret Frater with John and Judith Walker enjoyed the happy party celebrations, too.

Tattersall's Bowlers' Festive Celebration

A very happy and most enjoyable dinner.

Our thanks to Allen Walker and his social committee for their organisation and planning and many thanks to Andy and staff in Tattersall's dining room in the festive season.

The two pandas donated by Allen were won by Madge Jones and Eric Crittenden. They now have top positions in the home.

Amateur photographers, Jimmy Anderson and Fred Mantel, captured some good fun groups around the tables.

During trophy presentations by the president, noticed some broad smiles from Jim Whyte and Jim Williams who won the final of the 1983 Pairs. Vic Vadas and Harold Hill were the other finalists — congratulations.

A large card was autographed by all present and sent to Ken "Flicka" Williams. Ken was a great member and supporter of Tattersall's bowlers — our sole selector and organiser for many happy events. All members hoped Ken enjoyed the "bubbly" accompanying the card.

SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP 1983

FINAL: Bill West defeated George Cohen at City.

IN SEMI: Bill disposed of Tim Anderson and George beat 1982 champion Jim Williams (31-30) in a great tussle.

Congratulations Bill West and all competitors.

GOOD BOWLING AND BE UP.

EPICUREANS

— Peter Ashby

It was a Happy Festive Banquet for All

Tattersall's Epicureans filled the first floor Club Room for their festive banquet and dance.

It was a great occasion, a very merry evening perfect for that joyous time of the year.

The fare commenced with champagne cocktails and canapes and then on to the superb banquet-like smorgasbord perfected by Tattersall's chef. Delicious kitten lobsters, prawns, oysters and whole-baked schnapper, roast suckling pig, roast-seasoned turkey, ham, the tenderest and rarest roast beef delightfully accompanied by a variety of salads.

Flambé plum pudding, glazed fruit flans and fresh fruit salad, a magnificent choice of cheeses and coffee and brandied prunes completed the feast.

A great wine list included such gems as McWilliams Mount Pleasant, Elizabeth Riesling and Philip Hermitage and Tyrrell's Old Winery Chardonnay Semillon.

A group from the Consular Corps graced this great occasion with their presence.

Geoff and Rhona Eastment and Victor Vadas, founding chief epicurean, were present and quite obviously needed no prompting to enter into the spirit of the evening.

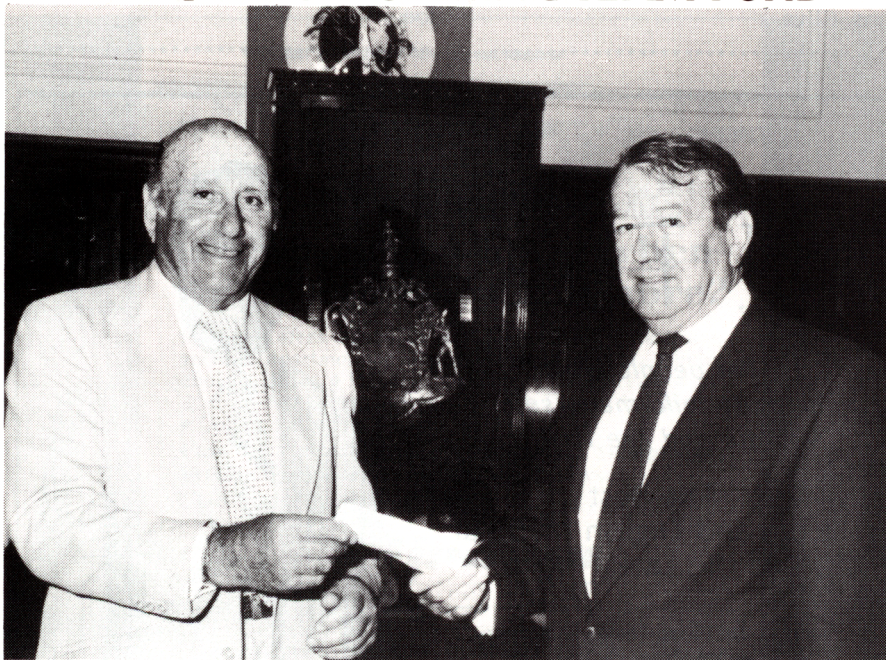

Sid and Mavis Fleming's party included Peter and Gay Gawne, Ralph and Joan Olsen and Mr and Mrs Ross Anisimoff.

Peter and Noreen Golding and Charles and Desi Coppa enjoyed every moment of the happy night.

Epicurean committeemen Len Sims and Bill Sellen hosted big parties.

Chief epicurean Neville Amy is to be congratulated for his organisational prowess during the past year and particularly for this successful event. Even Santa Claus appeared momentarily but when he observed the peace on earth and goodwill to all men that was evident he toddled off to other locations where his presence was required.

CHEQUE FOR OLYMPIC TEAM FUND

Some Tattersall's Bookmakers ... ON THE JOB

TOP LEFT: Tattersall's member and keen racing man Grahame Allan pockets a ticket from that very happy personality Roger Manning.

YOU'VE GOT TO BE GOOD TO STAND UP 35 YEARS!

Doug Jordan came out of the west — Western Australia to be exact. A bookmaker for thirty-five years. He has covered Perth, Melbourne and Sydney in dedicated fashion. He has enjoyed rails position for longer than he can remember. I asked him what did he think could help racing? "Admit ladies free — for where a lady goes — you'll generally find a man with her!" he remarked. Doug paid compliment to the AJC and its control — he applauds their action in bringing the Randwick track back to its best. Doug was recently involved in a nasty accident and his broken bones are still recovering but he's back on the job. There's no shortage of medical care round him — his loved wife is there — his son Anthony is a doctor and two daughters, Maria and Frances, are both married to doctors. Good and bad days included winning £20,000 in one wager in Melbourne. Rising Fast balanced the books against him when he won the Melbourne Cup. He's a man of all sports, a bowler today — has played cricket, Australian Rules, golf and is a keen swimmer — so you can see our man is a sport for all seasons.
